

Syllabus

Behavioral and Digital Economics for Effective Management (BDEEM)

Course title	Advanced French Course
Teacher	Odile Papin / abderrahim Amrani
shared course	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Yes, with
Hourly volume	20HTD
Evaluation methods	written exam
Course summary	The objective is to prepare students to use the French language for their economic and management studies and consequently for their professional needs in real life and work.
Course knowledges	Speech acts, comprehend and respond to questions about a variety of everyday topics. Communication using culturally appropriate vocabulary and appropriate grammar structures. Use of the correct language register and appropriate lexicon in different situations
General skills	Listening and speaking skills are developed, enabling students to interact freely in the french langage
Specific skills	Grammar, French phonemes and intonation with a high degree of accuracy