Syllabus
Behavioral and Digital Economics for Effective Management (BDEEM)

Course title	Information Systems Management: Focus on SQL
Teacher	Jean-François Couchot
shared course	X No Yes
Hourly volume	21
Evaluation methods	- Acquisition of key points tested by MCQs - Complex thinking and approaches evaluated by a time-limited exam - Global implementation assessed by a project
Course summary	The aim of this course is to bring some knowledge and methods about Data management in firms and how this data is handled.
Skills	Designing, implementing, and managing standardized databases. Designing computerized processing of various types of information, such as data, images, and texts. Give advices on the protection of the Data in firms, analyze a situation when there is an attack on the data, teach bases on the data protection.